Chairman's Message

Plans are in the advanced stages for our Tattersall's Plate-Furious Stakes-Tattersall's Tramway Handicap and Chelmsford Stakes Meeting at Randwick Racecourse on Saturday, September 13 next.

Of special interest to Members will be the 50th running to compete for the James Barnes Plate. This race for four year olds and upwards whose wins do not exceed two races in the metropolitan area of any State, is over 1,600 metres. The Australian Jockey Club has been most generous in providing to Members of Tattersall's Club and their guests, honorary membership tickets for the day, and every Member is entitled to this privilege for our Meeting. Please leave your name at the office and tickets will be available to you on Thursday and Friday, September 11 and 12, and are to be picked up at the Porter's desk.

On Monday, September 8, the Committee have arranged a luncheon for the racing writers and commentators in the media to appraise them of the events of the day, and as entries close at 2.00 p.m. that day, we should be able, prior to the conclusion of the function, to give them some idea of the fields that we could expect, subject to subsequent acceptance on Thursday morning, the 11th. Once again your Race Committee is anticipating big fields and we are already assured that many top class horses will be running.

The 1980 Billiard and Snooker Tournaments are drawing to a close and should be finalised in the next few weeks. Currently there is being organised a doubles Snooker Tournament with first prize of $200 donated by Peter Twigg, second prize of $100 donated by Norman Rogers and third prize of $50 donated by Peter McGrath. So "choose your partner" and get your entry forms from the office and lodge them as soon as possible.

I am happy to relate that the testimonial evening in the Club for Warren Simpson on Friday, June 20, 1980, was a great success financially and we were entertained by a fine frame of snooker. Unfortunately, I regret to advise Members that Warren Simpson passed away shortly afterwards and was unable to enjoy any of the benefits of the night. Warren was a good Member of the Club, used it frequently and the Club were the beneficiaries of valuable advice over a great number of years from him. He certainly will be missed in the Club and particularly on the 2nd floor. On behalf of all Members of Tattersall's Club we express our deepest sympathy to his widow.

By the time you read this message, our two teams will have left for Honolulu to compete in the 10th Annual Maui Channel Swim, and I understand that this is the first team from Australia ever to compete. Two special flags with the Tattersall's Club emblem were given to the teams prior to the departure and our thanks to Len Sims for making them for us. Good luck to the teams, we hope you come home with the trophy.

Congratulations to our Member Des Renford on completing his 19th English Channel Crossing. A popular Club Member and one of Australia's greatest swimmers. After 19 crossings he is entitled to hang up his "togs". Good on you Des, a wonderful job for Australia.

New poker machines have been installed on the 1st floor in an effort to rejuvenate turnover from machines in the Club. Let us know what you think of them.

K. H. MOREMON, Chairman

TATTERSALL'S SKI CLUB

Once again Tattersall's Ski Club members were associated with the 'breaking of the drought', thus opening the 1980 ski season. High hopes had been held for an early opening to the season, however Queen's Birthday weekend, the 'official' opening, came and went without ski-able snow and by late June, concern was being expressed that maybe 1980 would turn out to be a repeat of 1979.

The Tattersall's Club Thredbo week commenced on the weekend of June 28 and 29 and as our skiers arrived, so did the best snow fall seen for many years and the 1980 season was off to a great start.

The following week a capacity turn out of Tattersall's skiers were at Werruna for the annual 'bucks' week, which, as in past years, was an outstanding success — great snow, good food, good fellowship among our 22 skiers — what else could one ask for?

Terry and Mark Forrest were the first to arrive on Friday and by dusk had all the provisions put away, then followed Peter Evans, Graham Smith and David Madden in the middle of a blizzard which had closed the road and caused the oversnow transport to cease services. However, they did not count on the determination of Basil Phillips, Bruce Cormac and Peter Perry who turned up during the night, others arrived during Saturday and the week was under way.

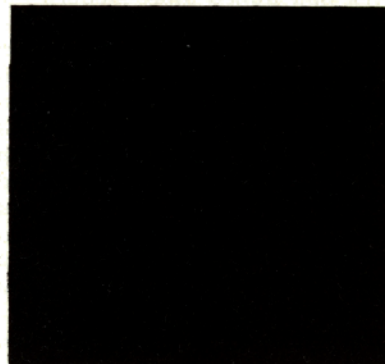

About half of our members joined classes from the Monday morning for a daily lesson throughout the week. Before starting out on Monday, Bas Phillips and a few helpers decided to call a 'binding check' and it was just as well — more than half the group needed to loosen their settings and in the case of hired skis, almost all had been set too tightly. It was only during the day that Bas noted his own settings had been altered when having his bindings fitted to new skis. As usual, the Tattersall's week was free of accidents which is no doubt due in part to the care taken in checking equipment. Our class levels covered from Class 1, Anthony Berkman,

CRITICS RIGHT OR WRONG?

I have known many very intelligent critics over the fifty years spent round the theatre and motion picture industry.

On reflection I ask where does the critic get his authority? They come and go — "They can only be right or wrong!" as Paddy says. I recall a film critic previewing the record breaking film "Star Wars" — "not a chance at the box office" he said — it went on to establish an all time high.

Margot Fonteyn, ballet star supreme, was the target of a newspaper scribe who criticised her delicate and skilled performance in "Swan Lake". His overseas experience to gain his authority was a trip to Manly. Yet he could influence people to attend or stay away from the theatre with a few taps on his typewriter. This I believe is quite wrong.

Critics are often dined and wined to get them to sing for their supper — I know at least one reviewer who went from soup to nuts and bit the hand that fed her.

This is the calculated risk one takes with our Sydney *Criticasters — with or without authority!

*Feeble Critics.

TATTERSALL'S SWIM SEASON OUTSTANDING CLUB TRIUMPH

by Sam Block

JACKSON TAKES OUT SILVER SHARPE TROPHY

Hats off to Derek Jackson, winner of the coveted Silver Sharpe Trophy donated by Tony McSweeney for the swimmer who scored the most points during the season.

During the year, of thirty-six events, Derek had trailed Mike McCormack and with Mike's unavoidable absence was able to turn the table in his favour.

Mike McCormack was well set to take out both the "Silver Sharpe" and "Tom Powell" trophies, but it was not to be as Mike left for a holiday in Fiji sacrificing both trophies. He had led the field from go to the last event but Jackson was not to be denied and managed to take the lead in the last race of the season scoring a total of 212½ with McCormack on 206.

The battle for the minor position was a dour one with no quarter given resulting in Alec McLelland filling third on 199½ in front of Dan O'Connor 196.

The Tom Powell Trophy was a replica of the Silver Sharpe as McCormack on the final day led with nine wins. Duncan, Tobias and Robinson won their respective events, resulting in a thrilling triple dead heat scoring 9½ wins each with McCormack in fourth place.

Hard luck Mike but don't arrange vacations until the season closes. That holiday was a costly affair so here's hoping and wishing you better luck for next season.

Ashley Reed's win in the May Monthly was a welcome change of luck. It was a pleasure to see the smile on Ashley's face as he lined up for the final and was a well merited win with a tally of 31 points, with Stewart McAllum on 27½ and consistent John Ward 26½. McAllum would have been much closer, but has been very toey at the barrier, being blown on two separate occasions. John Ward can always be relied upon to be well in the firing line, but owing to a strained back missed an event.

David Dobbin in landing the June Monthly with a colossal score of 43 points, one short of the possible had to use all spark plugs to win the Point Score from improving John McKeon on 41. Dobbin had 7½ wins and McKeon 7 wins during the month, both outstanding performances and the best record of the season. Popular Dan O'Connor held third place on 31.

Oh the shouting and cheering as the results of the Jack Mandel Family Event were announced. The enthusiasm that has been created by this event has all the family participants on their toes and the finishes have been a handicapper's dream.

The ultimate winners were I. and T. Joye 50, C. and L. Bowes 45½, T., G. and D. Salier 41½, B and G. Cameron 38.

Swimmers showing speed during the month and even in the last race, four of them, Dobbin, Duncan, Tobias and Heath clipped seconds off their handicap.

L. Emery 18-1, C. Gunson 19-7 and 20, McCormack 19-6, 19-8 and 20, J. McKeon 20-5 and 20-7, D. Dobbin 20-8 and T. Salier 21.

Newcomer Geoff Glover was welcomed and showed his paces with brother Ken in the family event.

Winners of the Monthly Trophies donated by Norman Rogers and D. and J. Keating in memory of their father Leo Keating were:

October J. Keating, November D. Robinson, December J. McClean, January C. Coppa, February J. Nicholas, March B. Ross-Jones and T. J. Ward (d.h.), April L. Emery, May A. Reed, June D. Dobbin.

So ends one of the most successful swimming seasons and we now look forward to the start of the 1980-81 season commencing on Tuesday, September 30 next.

The Club's Presentation Evening has been set down for Friday, October 31, so make your reservation early.

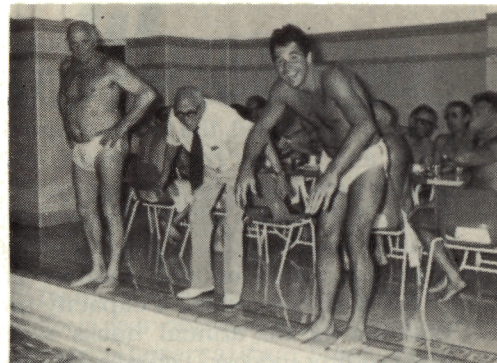

As the writer will be leaving for his usual haunt at this time of the year, the championships report will be in the next issue.

Tattersall's Club Offers Great Entertainment Areas For Members

Demand for staging large parties is steadily growing. It is ideal for Weddings and Business groups. Members are advised to call at the office on the ground floor or write to the Secretary. Details of all rooms which members can use for Social Functions are listed below. The Secretary suggests that applications for use of all rooms be made as far in advance as possible. Full catering facilities with extensive menus will please all — the wine list is excellent. Smaller rooms — more intimate are ideal for a restricted dinner party for executive entertaining. The Sportsman's room is spacious with built in bar facilities, makes it ideal for a drink, talk and eat function — excellent for company involvement. Top service in all these departments in the distinctive surroundings of Tattersall's Club add to the enjoyment of members and their friends.

TESTIMONIAL DINNER FOR BILL (SANDY) STANFIELD AT TATTERSALL'S CLUB

Many members of Tattersall's Club joined with their friends in the Function Room in August when a Testimonial Dinner was held for recently retired "Sandy" Stanfield, a well respected and popular executive of Tooth and Co. Limited.

Chairman of the dinner was John Norris and the organising committee comprised Cyril Maloney, Des Ryan, Reg Rafton, Ron Pearson and John Moon.

Member Noel Simpson was at Tattersall's for the meeting of Standard Bred Owners Association. Committee include Tattersall's Club members Bob Humphries, Ken Bowman, Brian Murray. And naturally the quality horses were the main topic of the meeting.

* * * * *
Likeable and quiet member John Craven with his wife Margaret celebrated their daughter Damzille Woods' birthday. Danzille's husband Peter was happy to be at Tattersall's Club in the joy of the night. John loves a game of golf too — he spends many hours at his club, Pymble.

* * * * *
Member John Cross was happy to have a Tattersall's Party to congratulate Brenda Eyles on being made a life member of Hills District Netball Association. Also present — John and Pauline King and Mr. Peter Eyles with John and Josie Cross. Nett results — Tattersall's happiness for all.

Member John Stafford was the thoughtful person who helped to celebrate the 80th birthday of his uncle Mr. Bernie Naudy. A party of 11 people including his sister, Marie, his sister-in-law Kath Stafford, nephew and niece and great nephew and nieces spent three enjoyable hours enjoying the hospitality of the Tattersall's Club. Two other people in the party, Miss Jennifer Stafford and Miss Irene Veltman, were also celebrating birthdays in the same week. Overall it was a very happy occasion embracing three generations of birthdays.

* * * * *
John Purrett arranged a fun party to celebrate the eleventh birthday of Christopher (youngest unmarried son). All five children attended. They had a wonderful meal. Marie's music was so magnificent even the youngest daughter, aged 7, asked for a dance. A great evening and Mick's choice of wines plus drinks for the children was great.

Member Greg Coote, young film executive knows the business of entertainment. A top man with a will to succeed.

Peter Twigg is a good addition to Tattersalls Committee with a sound knowledge of people — be it country or city. His quiet manner is very reassuring.

Member and Newcastle Jockey Club Committee man Mal Walford comes to Sydney — always wears a wonderful smile.

The favourite must have been beaten. Interstate fielders book-makers, George Rohanna and Robert Blann wearing winning smiles.

John and Yve Moorcroft were pleased to arrange a Tattersall's Birthday Party for Tristan Phillips, 11 years old. John's step-daughter and five of Tristan's Queenwood school class mates reported a great night was had by all present.

* * * * *
Member Dr. David Gronow had the right prescription for a great birthday night for Jo-An Roberts (17 years) and Stuart Roberts (14 years). It was celebrated at Tattersall's Club. Guests included Mr. J. Quinn and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Walker with children Diana-Kay Burman, Robert Walker, son-in-law Lloyd Burman, daughter-in-law Elizabeth Walker and grand-daughter Daniella Burman were all there to enjoy celebrating the happy birthday fun at Tattersall's.

Mr and Mrs. Gerald Hayes staged a party to celebrate their daughter's birthday. Carolyn was nine. Sister Margaret and Carolyn's brother, Stephen (11) also accompanied by Stacey Bohm (9) made a happy group for the party.

Graeme Virtue had fun arranging a get together of friends. Mr. Tim Anderson, Gordon Earl, Rosaline Virtue and the Blackerbys. Tattersall's is just the place to have a lovely meal with all the joy that goes with it.

* * * *

Ex-Coonamble people Mr. and Mrs. Len Waterford celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary at dinner with their life long friends Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kennedy. The Kennedys appeared by chance. Trainer Pat Murray with his wife were there too to help make the evening one to remember.

* * * *

Dr. and Mrs. Fean with his aunt Mrs. Chudleigh plus six of the family farewelled Francine their eldest daughter who will holiday in England and Germany. They meet up with another daughter Monique who is dancing with the German Ballet Company.

* * * *

In party at Tattersall's A.J.C. handicapper Mr. Ken Goodwin with his wife plus their son Ken Jr. and daughter Evelyn. They were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Mae Auley and Mr. and Mrs. Meagher.

* * * *

What a party to remember! Declan James Curran, F. D. Curran, F. J. Curran (father), P. J. Curran and R. Harbich gathered to celebrate Patrick Joseph Curran's admission as a solicitor to the Supreme Court of N.S.W., joining his elder brother Francis Denis Curran (a barrister) in practice in the Law, also to celebrate Tattersall's member Declan James Curran being selected for the N.S.W. v. Queensland Rugby match.

* * * *

Harold McKay was pleased to celebrate his 40th wedding anniversary with his wife Dot. They were accompanied by their daughter, Carol Newton, husband Tony, grand-daughters Linda and Fiona and son Geoff with his wife Penny, made the party a great success.

* * * *

Member Brian Chittenden was happy to arrange a party for his daughter Andrea. His wife Marilyn with daughter Andrea and sons Peter and David had a really good family night at the club.

Congratulations to Justin Holmwood, the member who arranged the dinner party for Lindsay and Eileen Holmwood's 40th wedding anniversary. Their five children and their four spouses were present. All had "a wonderful Tattersall's time" which is not unusual at Tattersall's.

* * * *

Syd Kay had a great idea for a farewell dinner for Mrs. K. Dunn, of Surrey, England, who is on leave from her teaching post. Mrs. Dunn came to Australia to visit her daughter and son-in-law and to see their two young children for the first time. Syd Kay and wife, Pauline, with Anne and Greg Cooper and Marie and John Gibson were in a happy dinner party.

* * * *

Solicitor and member Vince Ryan had fun at his son Michael's birthday party at Tattersall's. Present in party were Mrs. Joan Ryan, mother; Kathy Ryan, sister; Patricia Giffney, sister and husband Paul; Jamie, brother; Gemma Cahill, Jean Pierre Baudou. Michael is a very bright young solicitor making progress in his profession.

* * * *

Powerful Norman Rogers never stops! On a recent trip to Singapore he met up with fellow member Mike Ivkovic, Phil Hase, Norm Geeves, George Bloomfield, and David Covington, whilst tripping round Singapore. Nor. visited the Tang Lin Club, which has reciprocity with Tattersall's. Considerable extensions are being made to this delightful place.

* * * *

The smiling happy Ken Upton is always with a happy group of people. This week was no exception. English union footballers were in our club. Ken gathered visitors Bob Beason, Peter Clarke, Dennis Hurrell and Malcolm Maddock for a beaut lunch at Tattersall's. Prominent sporting personality Bruck Cheine was seen with more of the happy footballers. It's nice to see our members looking after these people.

* * * *

Sports John Rush, Tattersall's Club member, told one against himself. He was sailing his beaut yacht Poco Loco (same design as ex-English PM Edward Heath's Morning Cloud). he complained to local maritime control that he was not being answered on his

GETTING TO KNOW A MEMBER

David Ford — a Bright Young Tattersall's Member

A regular user of Club facilities is David Ford who is one more of our many members to graduate from Sydney University after secondary schooling at St. Joseph's College, Hunters Hill.

At Joey's, David was a prominent athlete and he was a member of the 1971 G.P.S. premiers 4 x 100 metres relay team whose record run on the Sydney Cricket Ground of 42.1 seconds still stands.

He played with the college and at Sydney University an occasional game with the Faculty of Law and in his spare time now prefers tennis, golf and swimming.

He is sixth generation Australian with family history going back to 1817 when John Ford arrived and subsequently established land and property holdings in the Bathurst-Kelso area.

No. 1 George St., Bathurst is now the Bathurst Museum preserved under National Trust and was originally built for John Ford's eldest son in 1860.

Horse racing devotees will appreciate David's great great uncle, Tom Ross, was a registered horse trainer and had the distinction in 1946 at the age of 84 years (Australia's oldest registered trainer) of training a winner "Speed Lad" in Brisbane.

The Ross family arrived from Limerick, Ireland, in October, 1858.

David is a solicitor with the firm of McCaw Johnson.

Member Noel Ford, his father enjoys retirement from a very distinguished executive career with Warner Bros.

offshore call No. 27479 — on checking he found it was not his call number but the renewal date of licence which incidentally cost $50 — a big rise from the old $5.

* * * *

Bill Dyer spearheaded a party to celebrate the occasion of Mrs. Eileen Dyer being named in the Queen's Birthday Honours List as a Member (AM) of the Order of Australia. In the party were great friends and members of Tattersall's Club — Mrs. Jo Peoples, Mrs. Eileen Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mr. Robert Wilson Junior, Miss Mary Ann Dyer, Messrs Paul and Anthony Dyer, Mrs. Dorothy Cubis, Mrs. Eileen Moore and Miss Cathy Stowpiuk.

* * * *

Tattersall's member, John Warr, M.B.E., was made a Paul Harris Fellow, the highest tribute Rotary offers "in appreciation of tangible and significant assistance given for the furtherance of better understanding and relations between peoples of the world." — Congratulations John.

Mr. and Mrs. Mick Craig celebrated the birthday of Margaret Craig (wife of Dr. Graham Craig). It was a farewell party for Ian and Carolyn Craig who are off to the Kentucky Derby.

Also present were Ian's mother and father-in-law, Winifred and Angus Taylor of Kingston Beach, Hobart, Tasmania.

Winners Mr. and Mrs. Ross Solomon celebrated two recent wins at Randwick with "Happy Landing" and "Big Bickies". The party included Mr. and Mrs. Ross Solomon (part-owners), Mr. and Mrs. George Warramer (part-owners) and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sutherland (trainer). Judging by the continued success of trainer Paul, he should come more often to Tattersall's. Must be the right kind of food for producing winners.

Ralph and Airini Payne were delighted to celebrate daughter Fiona's 15th birthday. Members of the party were proud grandparents Reg and Muriel Payne, Ralph and Airini Payne, Mark, Michael, Matthew and Nicole Payne.

Fiona will no doubt remember the great night and look forward to her next birthday.

Member, Maurice Austin, and wife Pat, recently entertained old friends Joan Barnhart and Ed Cholar who had not been in Sydney since 1951. Ed, now residing in Honolulu, was over to march in ex-U.S. Army in the Anzac Day March.

Also in the party was Norma Ham from Bondi, a good friend of Joan's.

Popular Max Walker with wife Lorna plus daughters Alison and Lorraine had a happy dinner party to wish Bon Voyage to their daughter and sister Ruth. Ruth is going overseas for a three-month holiday to Britain and Europe.

Member Vic Owen with his wife Mona, their daughter and son-in-law, Margaret and Kevin Driscoll, celebrated the 9th birthday of their grand-daughter Justine Driscoll. Justine was thrilled with the evening. The joy of a night for a nine year-old in such happy surroundings cannot be measured.

Abe Davis, former Bookmaker entertained 21 friends in the Dining Room. Abe is about to travel abroad but not before he launches his book "A Day Before Yesterday" — all about Sydney since the turn of the century.

Member Colin Hunt was host at a party of eight in the Dining Room on the evening of Monday, April 21, 1980.

The occasion being to celebrate with Mr. Peter Sanders, the party's guest of honour, his appointment into the upper echelon of commercial finance.

As usual compliments flowed freely in favour of chef George's culinary arts. Naturally, the services provided by both Pauline and Thomas were exemplary.

Member, Lloyd Crawford found a good reason and place to celebrate daughter Janet Hensley's birthday. Also in the party was Janet's husband Michael, Mrs. Crawford, Snr., John and Catherine Crawford and Peter Crawford.

through to Class 5. Results of the end of week ski class races were not published, however Tattersall's best result was Greg Robertson scoring fourth while the most spectacular finish was recorded by Dick Small who crossed the line at a full gallop with skis and stocks under his arm.

On Monday, Mark Forrest and Mark Worrel departed and their places were filled on Tuesday by George Andrews and Arne Valkama, both excellent skiers.

The Wirruna week has established a reputation for the quality of meals, it was even suggested the week be renamed 'the ski-ing and gourmet week'. This year the cooks, all of whom were rostered from among the fellows, again performed creditably, with the highlight being what has now become the famous 'curry night'. The rostered cooks, George Andrews, Peter Evans and Peter Perry were assisted by nearly all those present during the two-day preparation period, and final stages of the rice was cooked under the controlled timing of Peter Perry's pocket computer. We were very fortunate in having such excellent meat which was supplied by Terry Forrest. On two occasions, some of the local restaurants were visited, the choice this year was the 'Old Tradition' and 'The White Spider', both are well known to Perisher skiers and on each occasion our members had a pleasant evening. The Old Tradition outing will be long remembered for the blizzard that raged that evening, the singing around the pianola, the conjuring act by the chef and perhaps most of all by the difficulty Charlie Coppa had in finding a pair of matching boots to carry him home.

Not all the activity was centred on skiing. The table tennis championship was a hotly contested event throughout the week with Peter Perry running out the winner and not losing a set either in or out of the championship during the entire week.

By courtesy of the Perisher Valley management, Chas Coppa was made a V.I.S. — very important skier — an honour extended to those who have reached a 'mature' age and are given a free lift pass in recognition. It was very interesting listening one evening to Chas talking about the early days at Thredbo and Perisher, days before ski lifts. David Madden recalled skiing at Mt. Buller with the aid of pack horses to take you to the mountain top. Peter Evans talked of skiing at Kiandra when snow-covered fences were the main hazard and climbing over a barbed wire strand fence with skis on was more so. Bas Phillips was able to tell us of establishing Wirruna in the early days at Perisher.

As with all great weeks, it came to a close all too quickly. The spirit that existed among the fellows is best shown by the fact that the duty roster for all chores was not increased to cope with our larger numbers and yet no one was overtaxed as everyone pitched in and helped.

A great double, Tattersalls Ski Club and Wirruna, and we are very grateful to Bas Phillips and his fellow directors at Wirruna for being able to share their facilities.

WORLD SNOOKER CHAMPIONS AT TATTERSALL'S CLUB

The greatest gathering of world snooker greats played a championship tournament sponsored by Rothman's of Pall Mall. Results are not available for publication as it would rob the magnificent series to be seen on television later this year. The brilliant surroundings of Tattersall's Club added lustre to this glittering spectacle.

TOP: Sir Nicholas Shehadie, O.B.E. and John Scott, of Rothmans of Pall Mall and world-renowned snooker player Ray Reardon.

CHAMPIONS CHARLTON AND CAMPBELL DOWN

The tournaments are progressing very favourably and should be completed as programmed by the end of October. We are now into the fourth round at the end of which we will be down to 16 survivors. Soon we will start the championships, so watch the notice board for the nomination sheets.

Your sub-committee has decided to run a Pairs Handicap Tournament on an annual basis and this event will be channelled into the final stages of the singles tournaments in September/October and continue through until completed in December or January using both rooms. First and second prize trophies valued at $500 and $300 respectively have been donated by the sub-committee members, and will be augmented by entrance fees of $5 per player ($10 per pair). Make up your own pairs and place your names on the nomination sheet on the second floor or complete the nomination form in this issue. Please take special note that single entries will also be accepted and will be suitably paired.

Reverting to the current tournament, there have been some very exciting matches with innumerable games finishing "on the black". Some of the more notable results should certainly be reported.

Jack Mather (+8) defeated Eddie Charlton (-55) after a very keen tussle and an excellent exhibition of first class safety play. At the end, when Eddie needed the pink to win he made an unfortunate error and Jack took full advantage of the opportunity, potting the pink and black to win. Congratulations Jack!

Tom Farrar (+32) defeated John Campbell (-40) and it was most notable that Tom (an old-timer) had no intention of letting John's great reputation weigh too heavily. Tom played very steadily mixing good potting with wise safety. John certainly had bad luck, when in the middle of a good break, he kissed in off; but still all the compliments go to Tom.

Keith Moremon (+60) had a meritorious win over Brian McElvogue (+63) who was one of the hot favourites in the early betting. Keep it up Mr. Chairman!

Warren Foster (+3) needed four snookers on the colours to win his match against Ven Hrouda (+53), then showed top form to beat Gordon Sadler (+47).

Mrs. Babs Simpson has specially asked me to thank all Members for the many tributes paid to Warren following his recent death, and for all the kindness and help he received during his long illness. I was able to assure Mrs. Simpson that Warren is greatly missed on the second floor and his passing is sadly regretted by all who knew him.

HANDBALL NOTES

by Peter Ashby

TATTS TROUNCE TAMARAMA

Tattersall's handballers travelled to the Tamarama Club and proved superior on the day after a series of singles and doubles matches.

Tamarama is considered by many to be the leading one wall handball club and they fielded their strongest team.

Tattersall's victorious team comprised Michael O'Dea, Tony Baine, Charles Robinson, Ray Hopkins, Bill Sellen, Bill Blakemore, Paul Vrachnas and Martin McCurrich, capably led in the light of such a gallant victory by none other than.

Bill Sellen led the Tattersall's onslaught and blitzed Gary Carter into submission. Bill was in superb touch and he never at any stage allowed Gary into the game. Bill's unusual aggressive game became a barrage of almost unplayable shots that forced Gary, whose usual game is an attacking one, into the role of a defender. Gary's few points resulted from some fiery serving which was insufficient to suppress the ebullient Bill who coasted home to win 31-16.

The spectators again got their money's worth by watching a Ray Hopkins masterpiece of attack when he defeated Jim Campbell 31-17. Ray played one of his great games. Jim is a natural retriever and he produced qualities as such that he had never previously revealed. For those who like this facet of handball, Jim played a gem of a game. Pure defence, however, is an inadequate strategem when opposed to Ray.

Charles Robinson, who became a very recent return from one of his interminable peregrinations, was considered to be somewhat underdone, confounded the critics by inexorably demolishing the 1979 State singles champion, Frank Caldwell. Frank played confidently but Charles broke Frank's stroke play fluency by not only retrieving shots considered normally to be winners but by astute placement of returns. It was an absorbing game and the scores were always close but Charles maintained control throughout to win 31-29.

Tony Baine played one of his rare bad games and throughout his match against Don Hudson he never settled down to produce the game for which he is becoming renowned. Both players prefer to apply steady pressure and this may not have allowed Tony to settle into a pattern of play. While the scores remained close Tony was obviously going to finish on the receiving end. The first count was 31-27 Don's way.

Michael O'Dea, Tattersall's champion, was down to play the local champ and past Tattersall's Plate winner, Noel Vella. Noel knows the Tamarama court inch by inch and although he made full use of this knowledge he could make no headway against Michael in the early stages of play. Michael went to an early lead and gradually increased his advantage with Noel attempting to score points with speed, power and placement. Michael produced his usual miraculous recovery shots and Noel was inevitably forced into errors. The match tempo steadied in the middle stages and Noel looked a rough chance when the Tatt's champ appeared to be tiring. Noel again burst into an effervescent spurt of shot making which expired on Michael's rock-like defence. Noel resorted to a do or die approach with the unavoidable result. Michael won easily 31-16.

The match of the day was a doubles clash with Martin McCurrich and Paul Vrachnas teaming against Peter Ashley and Gary Carter. Martin, fresh running (nose and all) from a fresh cold were no match for the scratch team opposed to them and although they established an early lead which they maintained they were destined to eventual annihilation.

You just can't put old handball heads on young shoulders. If Martin could have run as fast as Paul's nose he would have won the run and if Paul could have matched Martin's early morning speed his team would have rallied to victory in the handball.

At 15-11 Gary Ashley and Peter Carter appeared to be playing into a gale, but at 16-15 hope was restored. With the score again in the danger zone at 16-16 consternation reigned supreme in the grizzled features of the old brigade.

When the cry of "let's go" rang out Gary and Peter leaped to a commanding 17-16 lead and were forced back onto the court by the referee after claiming victory.

The crowd was divided but threats of relegation were drowning the calls for the game to proceed.

At 17-17 pandemonium broke in the gallery so much so that a call to lunch went unheeded except for two of the players. The referee again forced Gary and Peter to return to the court.

The score was sonorously enunciated by the referee — 18-17, 18-18, 19-18, 19-19.

The intense pressure was hopefully ephemeral. An entreaty by all entrants was for an honourable result but at 20-18 all obviously decisive action was obligatory.

Ashley pulled a stroke from his repertoire that gained victory at 21-20, that enthralled the crowd and that above all so stunned the referee that he forgot to force the Ashley-Carter team back onto the court.

TATTERSALL'S PLATE—1980

This sought after trophy sponsored by Norman Rogers has again produced top class handball in all early round matches.

Each year each handball club is requested to nominate their top singles players and a seeded draw is made for knockout play.

Tattersall's, Bondi Icebergs, Tamarama, Clovelly and Coogee Clubs accepted the invitation to nominate their best players.

Tattersall's was represented by Michael O'Dea, John McGuire, Ray Hopkins, Tony Baine, Bill Blakemore, Martin McCurrich and Bill Sellen.

Only two Tattersall's players won their way through to the quarter-final round.

Michael O'Dea, ruling Plate holder and Tatt's champion, easily accounted for Coogee's top contender Terry Jenkins. While the final score in Mike's favour was 31-22 he was never in doubt as the subjugator.

Ray Hopkins dragged himself from the jaws of defeat to overcome a tenacious, confident and fit John Forde of Bondi, to eventually assert his prowess by 31 points to 29. John led in the later stages of the game but he was ruthlessly reduced to rubble by a determined Ray Hopkins' onslaught.

Frank Caldwell's defeat of Tony Baine was meritorious. Tony played well but on the night the State singles champion was too good and maintained a steady lead to win 31-28.

Gary Stubbles, always a crowd pleaser, beat Bill Sellen in a hard slugging lightning fast match. Bill tried every trick he knew but the effort availed him little comfort. Gary won 31-20.

Tony Brown, Bondi Icebergs, played entertaining, attacking handball to defeat Martin McCurrich 31-22.

Bill Blakemore suffered the misfortune of meeting Noel Vella when in superlative form. Noel is a previous Plate winner and his class was all too evident in his victory, 31-24.

Reg Chappel unaccountably accounted for John McGuire by 31 points to 24. Reg is the type of player who not only tries for each point but for each shot. It was, however, thought by the experts that John's hard hitting may upset Reg's calm.

The three semi-finals played to date have proved handball classics.

Ray Hopkins was sublime in his defeat of Frank Caldwell 31-29. Both contestants play to win and not to allow their opponent to defeat himself. From the service and side change at 5-all Ray never surrendered the lead. Just ahead at 8-7 he rapidly established superiority at 12-8 and 17-13. Ray's shots were screaming more than a teenage girl at a rock concert. Both players maintained the pressure but it was Ray who maintained the lead and he turned at 22-18, 25-20 and with the healthy advantage at 30-25 it appeared all over. Frank, however, still in there and kicking, won four points to reduce the lee-way to 30-29.

Don Hudson (a Tamarama Trier) attacked Noel Vella from the outset and with the early success of these tactics continued to the mid-twenties to shake the confidence of the second favourite. The score was even throughout the game. Service changes were unbelievably 5-5, 10-10, 15-15, 20-20 and 25-25. Don invariably led between side changes with Noel reducing the leeway to even the score. Noel, however, enjoyed the luxury of the final service bracket and playing desperately, and in perfect touch, raced away for a 31-25 shut out.

Gary Stubbs has always been a decoration on the handball court and in his defeat of Tony Brown he showed all those fortunate to be present just why. Tony has most shots in the game, is an attacker and what is referred to as an angle merchant, but Gary annihilated him in a merciless display of speed, accuracy and aggression rarely seen at Tattersall's. Gary, from a 3-2 lead, leaped away to an advantage of 8-2, 13-2, and unbelievably 18-2. Tony began to win points but the blistering pace of Gary's game never eased and he kept the advantage at 32-7 and then went further ahead to lead 28-7. Tony was back in the game for a fleeting moment but it was all over at 31-10.

NEW PLAYERS

Any new, old or recently inducted member interested in an active sport guaranteed to reduce the waistline, lower the pulse rate, improve the appetite (and thirst) should immediately commence or re-commence to play handball.

If interested ferret out John Barnes, assistant secretary, or David Dobbin, treasurer, or phone Peter Ashley, 30-7220. Any information will be given as well as an introduction to the practical participation in this magnificent, toughening and tempering sport.

TROPHY PRESENTATIONS

Witness the equivalent of the world championships, the final of the Tattersall's Plate and then join the champs at Tattersall's Handball Presentation night on Tuesday, September 16. Enter your name on the notice on the third floor or book with John Barnes or David Dobbin.

KILLARA, June

Early showers threatened, but cleared by hit-off time leaving perfect conditions for those gathered. Sixty-five starters faced the gun, including 26 visitors, who were most welcome to boost our ranks.

Most of the usual faces appeared and a few not so regular faces in the shape and form of Jack Paterson, Russ Sanderson, Doug Hann and Bruce Goddard — good to see a few of our "older" members coming out of retirement.

Honours for the day went to Angus Foster and Doug Schahinger in the 4-ball with 45 points, winning on a count-back from Graham Smith and Eric Brier. Committeeman Os Bates and partner Bruce Goddard managed 44 as did Rod Fisher and Clive Allen.

In the Members singles Geoff Little romped in with 42, and showed it was no fluke by winning the Left-Handers' Cup at Pymble only last week. Don Dunne was runner-up on 39 with Bruce Goddard one further away on 38.

Visitors singles was won by Brian Keeler on 38 from Warringah Committeeman Merv Nagel also on 38 — good to see you along Merv.

Those who weren't driving proceeded to the snooker room where we were looked after by Pete and his staff, and a most enjoyable evening was had by all. Many thanks to Killara for the wonderful condition of the course and the hospitality extended to us — we hope to see you again in 1981.

PYMBLE, July

Numbers were up and 80 (including 36 visitors) hit off in ideal conditions. With a slightly late start, some were struggling to finish in the fading light of mid-winter, but all completed the course and scoring was right up to par.

New member Don Cameron and visitor Dick Bakarich took out the 4-ball with 46 points from Rod Fisher and his friendly local publican, Bob McKinnon with 45. Rod blames the fading light for "blowing" the last hole, by 3-putting from 8 feet to gain only the minor trophy.

Members singles was won by last-start 4-ball winner Angus Foster with 38 points from Hedley Kelly with 36.

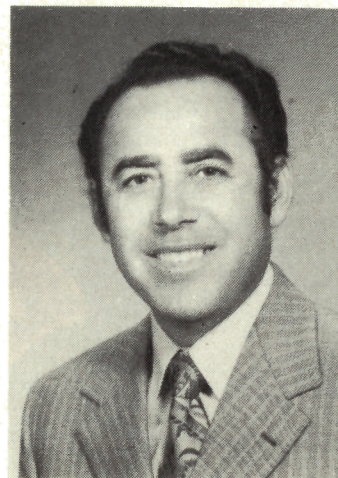

Visitors singles went to Ray Montiglio with 39, a good score on the day.

Club Med New Caledonia. The South Pacific's newest resort

From $538 you can have seven days of fun and pleasure at Club Med New Caledonia. A holiday that not only includes airfare and accommodation but many other no-cost extras as well. Such as three banquet-like meals every day with French wine at lunch and dinner. Sports such as wind-surfing, archery, tennis, snorkelling and sailing on Hobie Cats and Lasers. Classical music concerts at sunset, cabarets and floorshows and a disco that doesn't stop until you do.

EX SYDNEY

Even a Mini Club that takes care of the kids. The only extras you have to pay for are personal purchases, excursions and drinks from the bar. It's an extraordinary holiday for the price for an ordinary one.

TASSIE STAVRIANOS

bookmaking ten years ago, progressing through the provincial Trots and Greyhounds. Tassie played rugby league football, but his off-course sporting love today is golf at the N.S.W. Club. His attractive young wife is kept busy with their two boys who attend Coogee Prep. School. They are a very happy family. Tassie would like to see the introduction of free admission on special days. "It could be advertised to seek new racegoers," he said. I think we all agree it has a lot of merit.

has a very pleasing personality and greets his clients in a happy way. He commenced
